

I. CLIL IN ACTION: Practical Strategies for Engaging Language & Content techniques

Roberta Pennasilico, Naples MH School

Erasmus Formazione

course objective

This course offers a practical approach to organizing and applying CLIL methodology, introducing new strategies to seamlessly integrate language and content into engaging, effective lessons. By reflecting on their existing knowledge and exploring innovative teaching techniques, participants will enhance their confidence in delivering dynamic CLIL-based instruction across subjects.

01

duration of course

A: October 10, 11, 12, 13 2025 from 10:00 to 13:00
B: October 12-13 from 10:00 to 13:00 /
October 14-15 from 14:00 to 17:00

02

meetings' tentative schedule

warm up	(10 minutes)
presentation	(45 minutes)
interactive activities	(15 minutes)
Q & A	(10 minutes)
group work	(20 minutes)
sharing & comments	(15 minutes)
closure	(5 minutes)

03

digital tools

presentations, interactive activities with Peardeck, online didactic games and more. Participants are required to bring their own laptop to be able to participate actively in the course activities.

04

TOPICS/

The course will include but not be limited to topics such as:

- an overview of CLIL methodology
- introduction to effective CLIL practices
- consolidated strategies and common vocabulary
- critical thinking skills
- effective routines in the classroom
- the 20-60-20 framework
- didactic online games
- interactive activities
- integrating technology in the classroom
- “student-centered” teaching
- lesson planning
- evaluation rubrics with AI

Roberta Pennasilico

Best practices to enhance CLIL in the classrooms.

Erasmus
Formazione